Says the Washington Post of yesterday:

"Albert Davis and Miss Mary Virginia Blundon, daughter of Henry Blundon, Fairfields, Northumberland county, Va., were married in Washington Wednesday at noon.

"On account of the recent death of the bridegroom's mother, only relatives and intimate friends of the families were present.

"The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's uncle, Frederick Downing, by the Rev. Samuel H. Green. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns.

"The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of tan whipcord and carried a bouquet of lilles of the valler and roses. She was unattended except by her younger sister, Miss Charlotte Blundon, who also carried a bouquet of roses.

"The bride was given in marriage by her father. Henry Blundon. The groom was attended by Rice Hooe as best man." Among those present were Mr. and Hoge—Opte.

Miss Lucie Walton Opie became the bride Tuesday of J. Biair Hoge, of Baltimore, Md. The ceremony was performed at 9:20 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, H. L. Opie, in Staunton, her pastor, Rev. Walter Q. Hullihen, of Trinity Episcopal Church, officiating. An altar had been improvised in an alcove of the front hall-way, which was prettily decorated with ferns and other greenery. The bride, dressed in a light gray traveling suit, with white hat and gloves entered with the groom, her brother, it. L. Opie, giving her hand in marriage. The wedding was a very simple one, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present.

handling stock. Down in the valley, in Carter county, Tennessee, Majar Reymolds owns a fertile farm of several hundred acres, and he has limed it extensively, and is growing alfalfa on it. Major Reymolds said: "I want the farmers to visit this land and see what I have been able to do with it in a few years. I have scattered ground limestons over it, and now have a crop of alfalfa which I am sure will bear three harvestings this year. I expect to get fifty tons of alfalfa the first cutting. I am now extending my operations to the Sweetwater valley, in East Tennessee. When I went to that valley a few years ago, I saw much valuable land in a state of neglect or abuse. I purchased a large tract, and I am now preparing the soil for planting alfalfa. I hope to impress upon the people of that fertile region the value of rotating crops and the possibility of getting wealth from the soil!

Old Structure Undergoing Repairs and Traffic Limited,
New York, May 18.—That some fears are felt for the safety of the old Brooklyn Bridge, which still carries a considerable share of the traffic between Manhattan and Brooklyn, is indicated by orders issued by the city bridge department prohibiting heavy teams from using the roadways and directing the elevated railroads to curtail their traffic during the rush hours. Extensive repairs are being made to the structure.

A statement even out by the secre-

A statement eiven out by the secretary of the public service board says;
"The bridge is rather old, and its construction is not the most modern by cany means, but with the repairs that are continually being made it is safe to believe that it will be many years, bfore it will be necessary to condemn it. Preventive measures are always best.
"The strain on the bridge when heavily laden with cars, trains and trucks, is naturally very great, and for this reason it has been deemed wise to realize trains."
